MILLENNIUM HARVEST HOUSE BOULDER ENHANCES ROOMS, SUITES AND PUBLIC AREAS

Millennium Hotels and Resorts Continues its Commitment to Rocky Mountain Property

NEW YORK (June 23, 2014) – As part of a multi-million dollar investment program by Millennium Hotels and Resorts across many of its 14 North American properties, the hotel group has just unveiled 100 newly refreshed Superior and Deluxe guest rooms, and Suites at Millennium Harvest House Boulder, a 269-room hotel located on the Boulder Creek path, adjacent to the University of Colorado campus.

Nestled at the base of the Flatirons on 16 scenic acres, this downtown Boulder hotel offers spectacular views overlooking the landscaped gardens and mountains from many of its guest rooms. With sizes ranging from 350 square-feet to 1,168 square-feet, guest rooms are spacious yet relaxed and functional with deep color accents complementing neutral tones. Other notable updates include larger contemporary bathrooms and a mini refrigerator in each room. Suites will also feature a wet bar and microwave.

A gathering place favored by many, Coaches Corner is being given a complete top-to-bottom facelift and will welcome 12 brand-new flat screen televisions. The sports bar is expected to be completed by late summer. In addition to refresh work throughout the hotel's public spaces and façade, a further investment of over $200,000 in technology infrastructure will deliver higher quality, faster Internet to guests.

“With the renovation of Millennium Harvest House Boulder, we have rejuvenated this quintessentially Colorado hotel in one of the country’s most pristine locations,” said Matthew T. Mrozinski, President, North America. “We look forward to welcoming guests as the destination gears up for the summer season.”

From now through September 7, guests can experience the new rooms at Millennium Harvest House Boulder by taking advantage of the Summer FREEdom package with 15 percent off accommodations, $25 food and beverage credit, and complimentary privileges such as Internet and breakfast for children ages five and under. For more information, visit www.millenniumhotels.com/usa/millenniumboulder/

About Millennium Harvest House Boulder:

Nestled at the foot of the Rocky Mountains, the 269-room Millennium Harvest House Boulder is the largest full-service hotel in Boulder, just steps away from the gorgeous University of Colorado campus. Hotel guests can enjoy a selection of activities during their stay, including guided hiking, mountain cycling tours, paragliding, and play tennis at any one of the 15 on-property tennis courts. During the winter season, skiers flock to mountains just a 20-mile drive away. With a number of provisions for business travelers, including high-speed Internet and spacious workspaces, accommodations are as suited to welcoming professionals as they are to families vacationing to Boulder. Many guest rooms have patios to take in views of the surrounding forests, peaks and Northern Colorado wildlife. The property boasts 48,000 square feet of outdoor and indoor meeting and banquet space, including an outdoor pavilion and lush gardens, ideal for elegant weddings and large conferences. Situated on 16 scenic acres of Boulder Creek, excellent shopping is a short walk away at the classic Pearl Street Mall and 29th Street Retail District.
