China Yuchai Announces Issuance of Second Tranche of Ultra Short-Term Bonds by Key Subsidiary

Singapore, Singapore – September 28, 2015 – China Yuchai International Limited (NYSE: CYD)

("China Yuchai" or the "Company") announced today that further to its announcement on April 14, 2015 on the receipt of approval from China's National Association of Financial Market Institutional Investors ("NAFMII") for the issuance of RMB-denominated unsecured ultra short-term bonds amounting to RMB 2 billion ("Bonds"), its key subsidiary, Guangxi Yuchai Machinery Company Limited ("GYMCL") had, on September 16, 2015 issued the second tranche of the Bonds amounting to RMB 400 million. The par value and issue price of each Bond is RMB 100. The maturity date of the second tranche of the Bonds is June 13, 2016.

The second tranche of the Bonds will bear a fixed annual interest rate of 3.9%. Subscription to and trading of the Bonds is only available in China to institutional investors of China's National Inter-bank Bond Market. The lead underwriter and bookrunner for the Bonds is the China Development Bank.

The proceeds from the issuance of the Bonds are to be used by GYMCL for repayment of loans. GYMCL will continue to review its financing strategy according to changes in China's economic environment and monetary policy.

This press release does not constitute an offer of securities for sale in the United States, and securities may not be offered or sold in the United States absent registration or an exemption from registration. The Company does not intend to register any portion of the Bonds issue referred to above in the United States or to conduct a public offering in the United States. Any public offering of securities to be made in the United States will be by means of a prospectus that can be obtained from the Company and that will contain detailed information about the Company and management, as well as financial statements.
