Singapore, 22 July 2020 – To honour the valiant efforts of Singapore's healthcare workers, Millennium Hotels and Resorts (MHR) has launched a special treat to thank them for working hard in keeping everyone safe. Offering half price accommodation and 25% discount off food and beverage, those in the healthcare profession can take some time out to relax at MHR's Singapore hotels.

"Our healthcare workers have been fighting the COVID-19 pandemic for the past few months. We understand their fight is a long and tough one, and we have been searching for a tangible way to thank these healthcare warriors. When we were presented with the 'Lions for Healthcare' community project, we knew it was the perfect platform for our hotels to reach out and show their gratitude," said Group Chief Operating Officer, Mr Kieran Twomey.

The "Lions of Healthcare" community project allows companies to acknowledge the work of the healthcare industry with tangible rewards. For MHR, this means offering healthcare professionals a welcoming sanctuary to wind down after a hard day's work.

Healthcare professionals can enjoy a special discount of 50% on rooms and up to 30% off F&B at Orchard Hotel and M Social. (Click here for promo link) Guests checking in are assured of MHR's "We Clean. We Care. We Welcome." commitment that enhances existing operational standards to ensure that every stay is safe, clean and comfortable. This includes the introduction of 10 key hallmarks regarding cleanliness and safety designed to safeguard guests throughout their stay. Both Orchard Hotel and M Social have also been certified as SG Clean hotels by the Singapore Tourism Board and Enterprise Singapore, a statutory board under the country's trade ministry.

In addition, healthcare workers can also indulge in discounted epicurean feasts from over 10 F&B outlets across MHR's hotels, including Hua Ting Chinese Restaurant at Orchard Hotel and Grand Shanghai at Grand Copthorne Waterfront. (Click here for promo link)
