Ticket To The High Life With Millennium Hotels and Resorts

Singapore, 5 October 2020 – Following news that Singaporeans will be receiving their government-issued tourism vouchers in December, Millennium Hotels and Resorts (MHR) has launched a “Yacht-cation Escape” package for those wanting something different to spend their vouchers on.

“Travel restrictions have been hard on Singaporeans who are fond of travelling and many are faced with spending the December holidays at home with nowhere to go. We wanted to create a special experience for Singaporeans to escape the doldrums by feeling like royalty for a day,” said Mr Lee Richards, Vice President Operations, South East Asia.

The “Yacht-cation Escape” promises to be an indulgent break that will have guests pampered at their Millennium hotel of choice, followed by an exciting sailing adventure to explore the Southern Islands of Singapore. From lavish accommodations to a luxury yacht ride, guests can revel in superstar treatment while sipping on sparkling wine and gourmet food.

Available for booking at Orchard Hotel and M Social, this package is the first under MHR’s “Take Happiness Seriously” campaign, an initiative that aims to encourage guests to prioritise happiness through a curated series of activity-driven packages.

“2020 has been a challenging year for everyone. Travellers are starved of adventure and wish to explore again. We want to encourage people to cherish happy moments in their lives and create lasting memories with us,” said Mr Richards.
