Singapore, 8 February 2022 – Grand Copthorne Waterfront Hotel, inspired by the Singapore River and the rich history behind it, has launched an-uplifting light art installation.

The hotel has partnered with Very Small Exhibition, an experimental art collective, to install special light art – as part of the Very Momentary Exhibition Series, which will run every night from 5 to 14 February, 8pm to 6am.

The exhibition led by local artist Lee Wei Lieh will deliver this artistic vision for hotel guests, residents in the Robertson Quay-Singapore River neighbourhood and members of the public to enjoy a memorable and exciting display of lights.

Titled "River of Life", this light installation will be the first such installation to be done in collaboration with a hotel by Very Small Exhibition.

"Grand Copthorne Waterfront Hotel will be lighting up the hotel building, hoping to bring a smile to anyone around the area," said General Manager Mr. Gagan Singh.

Added Mr. Singh: "Food, beverages, good vibes and music will be available at our special outdoor popup outlet so rest assured you will be well taken care of. The light up will be especially meaningful for couples who want to celebrate Valentine's Day with something different. Be sure to select the peaceful spots near the Singapore River to catch the exhibition".

Grand Copthorne Waterfront Hotel is part of Millennium Hotels and Resorts, a global hospitality group which has six Singapore hotels in its portfolio, including Orchard Hotel, M Hotel, Studio M, M Social and Copthorne King's Hotel.

Lee Wei Lieh is known for his series of installations via Very Momentary Exhibition here such as Singapore Night Festivals, i-Light Marina, NOISE Singapore and more.
